Notable Opening: Porto Vivo in Huntington

We're counting down the days until August 22nd when Porto Vivo swings its doors open in the old Gerard Street Antiques in Huntington. The newest addition to the famed Huntington dining scene, this masterpiece will be crafted by Executive Chef Steven Lecchi, who has had some famous clients when not overseeing some of Tuscany's top restaurants.

The three-floored restaurant will be open for dinner nightly and if you stay late enough, you'll be able to lounge by the bar after-hours. 631-385-8486
